AEROFLEX PLAINVIEW RECEIVES ACCREDITATION OF TRUST FROM DoD/DMEA

Plainview, New York – Aeroflex Plainview announced today Trusted Accreditation by the Defense Microelectronics Activity as a Microelectronics Trusted Source for DoD and all other U.S. government users. Specifically, Aeroflex has been awarded Category 1A Trusted Accreditation for Packaging/Assembly into Trusted Foundries.

The Trusted Foundry program, and subsequently a more broadly defined Trusted Integrated Circuit Supplier program, was established to combat risks and threats to the integrity of the integrated circuit supply chain. The purpose of this program is to provide an assured supply of high integrity, secure microelectronics to the U.S. Government. With this accreditation Aeroflex Plainview will provide to its customers a trusted chain of custody and secure supply chain solutions that interface with existing Trusted Foundries.

“Aeroflex Plainview has historically provided secure microelectronic solutions to a broad spectrum of U.S. Government customers,” emphasized Tom Terlizzi, Vice-President and General Manager. “The emergence of the Trusted Integrated Circuit Supplier program was a natural fit to our business model, and we are pleased to have earned this accreditation.”

Aeroflex Plainview is a leading supplier of application-specific multi-chip and hybrid modules, standard memory and MIPs, microprocessor based products for satellite, military and avionic applications. Other products offered are high reliability motion control subsystems, DC brushless motors, motor drivers, DC-DC converters, Single Board Computers, RF and Fiber optic products, SMT and Chip on Board modules. Further information on the company and their products can be found at www.aeroflex.com/HiRel.
